

GWIS Special Session
7th International Wildland Fire Conference
October 29th, 2019

Meeting Venue

Convention Centre Rubens Gil de Camilo,
Campogrande, Brazil

<https://www.ibama.gov.br/wildfire2019-eng>

14:00 – 14:30 – Opening

- The 2019 wildfire events in Brazil – Alberto Setzer (INPE)

14:30 – 16:00 Session on the GWIS program (15 min press + questions)

- GWIS: current status and foreseen developments – Jesús San-Miguel (JRC)
- NASA Applied Science Program NASA GEO GWIS program – Vincent Ambrosia (NASA)
- Harmonized global active fire data set –Joanne Hall, Louis Giglio/Wilfrid Schroeder ((U. Maryland/NOAA)
- Using NASA fires products to enhance GWIS – Aaron Sparks, Luigi Boschetti/David Roy (U. Idaho/U. Michigan)
- Enhancements to Fire Danger Rating in Indonesia – Robert Field (Columbia U./NASA)

16:00-16:30 - Coffee break (30 mins)

16:30 – 17:30 – Session GWIS data and services (15 min press + questions)

- FAO support to fire management programs – Peter Moore (FAO)
- Potential use of GWIS products in fire management:
 - Lawrence Nóbrega de Oliveira (IBAMA/Prevfogo, Research and Monitoring Department)
 - Remote sensing and geoprocessing as support to fire management and forest fire fighting in Federal Conservation Units, Kelly M. Resende Borges (ICMBio)

17:30 – 18:30 – Open discussion/demonstration of GWIS and next steps

- Demonstration and discussion on the use of GWIS, example of support to the Emergency Response Coordinating Centre – Guatemala, Bolivia, etc. Jesús San-Miguel (JRC)

Discussion on training and outreach on GWIS products/services (all)

